Where to stay in Europe: The most beautiful new hotels for a perfect summer holiday

Whether you're craving snow-capped peaks or a relaxing stay on the sun-drenched coast, here are the most beautiful and best new hotels to stay at in Europe for a refreshing summer holiday

Europe always has something to offer, whether you're planning a winter getaway or a summer escape. With its diverse countries, cultures and traditions, every visit is a chance to be pleasantly surprised by the distinct and fascinating worlds it holds.

If your next trip involves exploring the sleek design of Northern European countries, diving into the rich heritage of Portuguese ceramics, savouring the timeless beauty of Rome, or relishing the elegance of Paris, here's a curated list of new places worthy of their respective locations.

Each of these hotels and accommodations provides a comfortable environment in which you can unwind and appreciate the beauty of every detail, and be exposed to various styles and cultures.

Hotel Sanders in Copenhagen, Denmark

Hotel Sanders is a sophisticated sanctuary that stands in Copenhagen's historical centre, a leisurely stroll from the bustling Nyhavn Canal. In proximity to iconic landmarks such as Amalienborg Palace, the Royal Theatre and the charming Christiansborg Palace, this boutique hotel comprises 54 luxurious rooms. It stands as the ultimate base for immersing oneself in the nuances of Nordic design, and a minimalistic yet refined aesthetic.

The artistry lies in the details, from the meticulously curated interior décor of the rooms to the allure of the Tata cocktail bar and Sanders Kitchen. Here, guests can savour cuisines that mirror Sanders' international mindset, with a mix of classic, healthy and utterly delectable dishes. The hotel successfully encapsulates the essence of Copenhagen's charm and style, crafting every element thoughtfully to make sure guests enjoy a memorable stay.
