BEST HOTELS IN EUROPE

U.S. News & World Report ranks the best hotels in Europe based on an analysis of industry awards, hotel star ratings and user ratings. Hotels that scored in the top 10 percent of the Best Hotels in Europe earned a Gold badge. Hotels that appear after ranked hotels are sorted by hotel class and then by user rating, as provided by TripAdvisor.

Sanders #2 in Best Hotels in Europe

Hotel Sanders subscribes to the notion that "a home without a heart is just a house" – and according to recent guests, that mindset shows throughout the boutique property. Patrons commended the hotel's employees for their excellent service and raved about the coziness of the accommodations. All 54 guest rooms are equipped with complimentary minibars, TVs, robes and slippers, and guests receive free breakfast and access to bicycles to tour around Copenhagen. Accommodations range in size from the smaller 130-square-foot Coupé rooms (inspired by luxury train cabins and excellent for solo travelers) to the more spacious 667-square-foot Sanders apartment (ideal for long-term travelers or those entertaining guests). Common areas include a centrally located courtyard, a living room equipped with a fireplace, a plant-lined rooftop terrace and the intimate TATA cocktail bar. Guests can enjoy meals and snacks in any of these spaces, or in the homey Sanders Kitchen where breakfast, lunch and dinner are prepared. Just note: A few past guests said the service from Sanders Kitchen was very slow. Thankfully, travelers will have no trouble finding dining options outside of the premises if they choose: The hotel is conveniently located in the heart of Indre By (old town Copenhagen), near plenty of eateries.
